MC Dent

Denver MC, DENT has been making hip-hop in the Mile High City since the early '90s. A well-traveled musical ambassador, DENT embraces classic hip-hop culture, especially its sense of community and good vibes. The prolific MC is always on the go and has released a lot of music over the years, both nationally and internationally, from EPs to LPs to a mix CD with DJ Chris Karns & DJ Unison. And when he's not recording music, DENT is busy booking events to promote the hip-hop lifestyle and bring people together.

Supported by

DJ Mahay

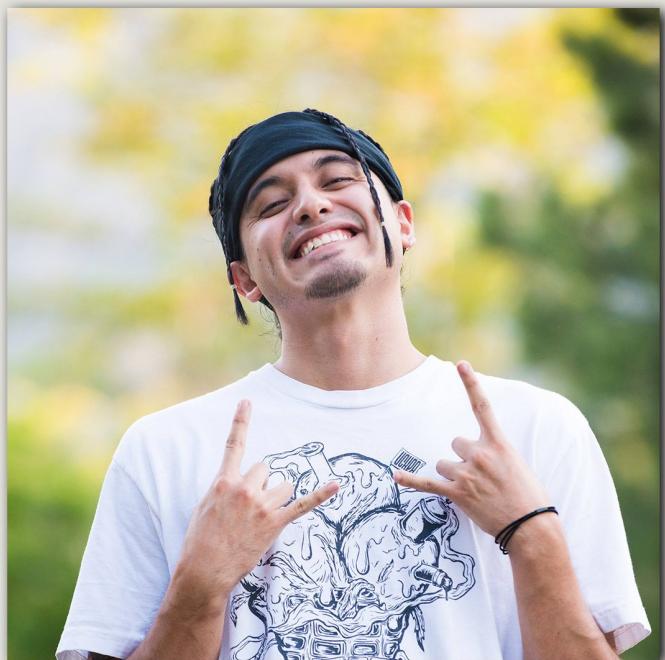

Mahayla Rose, known as Mahay, is a local DJ from Denver. A music lover and born dancer took to DJing in 2014. After falling in love with the Colorado Hip Hop scene, she began battling, traveling, and throwing dance events. Fully immersing herself in this culture. She now travels the country to DJ dance battles and parties but is a cypherhead at heart. With a deep love for good beats and social dances, the club is home. Her dance and DJing stem from one thing, good music that moves people. Whether she is behind the decks or on the floor, it's guaranteed to go down!

Meet the Judges

Julio Amida

Julio Amida, known as King Julio in the breaking scene, has been dancing since the age of 12. Julio later found for himself the breaking scene in Colorado where he started battling and training in at the age of 15. In 2013 he was inducted to represent under Amida Crew. He graduated from Boulder High and later graduated from the University of Colorado with a Bachelors in Computer Science. Through his high school career until now he has been an avid part of the Colorado hip-hop scene by competing in-state and nation wide representing the state. Julio is also a breaking coach at Mi Chantli. In Julio's workshops he tries to share his love of breaking with everyone and make it more accessible to learn while still keeping true to breaking culture. His goal is to inspire individuals to be themselves while they learn the foundations of breaking.

Kevin O'Keefe "K.O."

Kevin O'Keefe One of Colorado's original Hip Hop teachers, Kevin has an extensive background in all Hip Hop styles. He received training from industry pioneers- Clyde Evans, Eric Finn, Quickstep and Rennie Harris. He has performed with: Don Campbell Lock jr, Electric Boogaloos, Lady Jules of the BeatFreaks, and the late Gary Kendall of the Jabbawockeez, and is a former member of Motion UnderGround's Hip Hop company EOM. He has Been a guest artist at the Arena in Switzerland, The San Francisco Hip Hop Festival, the Colorado College Dance Festival, The Breaking Point in Montana, CU Boulder, and CSU Fort Collins, Red Rocks community college and Front Range community college. Kevin now is Bringing this unique flavor to many Studios in Colorado and is the Founder/Director of True 2 Form Dance Group. He has for years been spreading a fire about the history of Hip Hop and a vision for where it could go. At this time, Kevin is a member of Street Stylez b-boy crew, Performing core member with Machinez Remainz popping crew, and Rennie Harris Grass Roots Project. Which has just finished a small performance tour of the Eastcost.

Anna Gunderson “Nanz”

Born and raised in Colorado, Anna Gunderson aka Nanz has been involved in the hip hop community from a young age. From traveling internationally for training, battles, and performances to producing events here in the Colorado Community, Nanz is dedicated to preserving the essence of house and urban dance culture and community in Denver. Alongside teaching, she has worked on bridging the gap between class and community culture, empowering others to exchange their passions throughout the city.

Performers

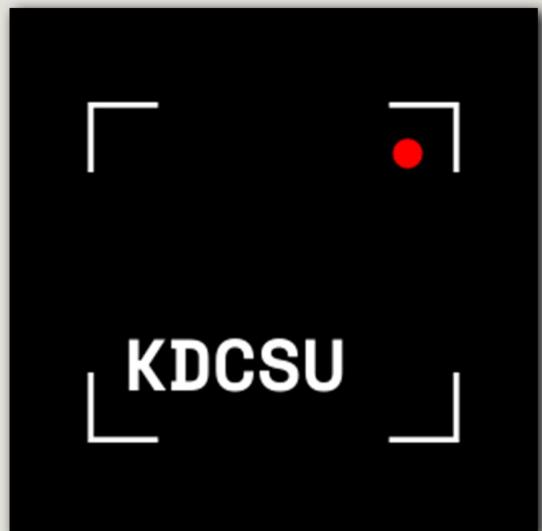

CSU Hip-Hop Dance Club

The CSU Hip-Hop Dance Club is a registered student organization at Colorado State University, our mission is to educate and inform students about hip-hop culture, history, fundamentals, dance skills, and community. Striving to create an inclusive and welcoming environment, we hope club members can learn to communicate and express themselves through the art of dance.

KDCSU

KDCSU is a student run organization that specializes in k-pop dance. We cover popular k-pop songs that we post to our youtube, as well as attend different performances and events held by the k-pop community through-out Colorado. Founded in 2019, we encourage people of all dance levels to join and share their interest in k-pop dance and korean culture.

Performers

Golden Poms

The CSU Golden Poms are under the direction of Lauren Rael and consist of 26 members for the 2023-2024 season. The team performs at every CSU home football game, ball game, as well as attends promotional events for the University and Fort Collins community. We pride ourselves in bringing positivity, school spirit and entertainment to the CSU campus and any event we are a part of. Thank you to the CSU Hip Hop Dance Club, for allowing us to be a part of your special event. GO RAMS!
